

FAQ'S

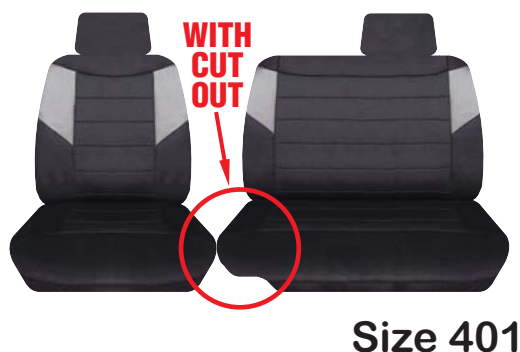

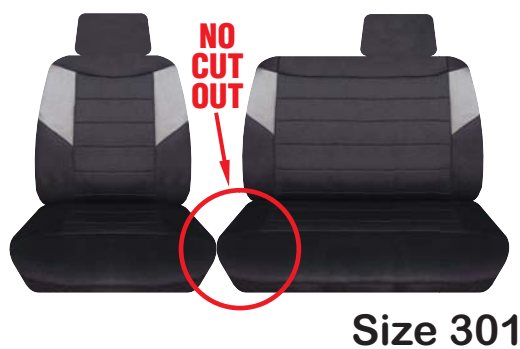

- If my seat cover gets dirty how do I clean it?

Nearly all fabric seat covers machine washable - if in doubt check the care instructions on the product.

- What is the difference between a size 60 and a size 30?

The seat shape is almost exactly the same except for the top section. The size 60 covers the headrest all in one piece while the size 30 has a separate headrest cover.

- Are the sizes the same from manufacturer to manufacturer?
 No. Each manufacturer or importer will have different size specifications. Just like you might take a size 8 in one brand of shoe and a 9 in another so to do seat cover sizes change. For this reason you should refer to each manufacturers specific size chart.
